Warm Greetings from Tri-County Community College,

As I pen these words for this 2012-2013 General Catalog and Student Handbook, I realize this publication will serve the College through the completion of its 49th year in operation, and thus usher us into a year of celebration as Tri-County Community College (TCCC) reaches a major historical milestone.

As you read the history of TCCC (beginning on page 6), you will discover that it was in 1964 when “political and educational leaders of Cherokee County met with representatives of Asheville-Buncombe Technical Institute. That same year, the North Carolina State Board of Education approved the Tri-County Industrial Education Center to operate as a part of the State Department of Community Colleges.”

Historical documents also explain that the current location of our main campus in the Peachtree community was selected in 1965 on the site of the “abandoned Cherokee County Prison Camp.” As I look out my office window today and see a beautiful and bustling campus, I smile and think, “Tri-County Community College, You’ve come a long way!”

It is a special honor and privilege for me, a native of Cherokee County, to serve as TCCC’s fifth President. While this College has indeed “come a long way,” I am deeply committed to leading it wisely and positively into its next phase of growth and development.

In June 2011, the TCCC Board of Trustees approved the adoption of a revised mission statement which, I believe, accurately captures the ongoing purpose of the College’s existence and future vision.

“To engage students in learning, help students succeed, and enrich the communities we serve.”

We believe this mission is accomplished through three main venues: A) Innovative and effective teaching; B) Supportive and efficient learning environments; and, C) Strong local and regional partnerships.

As I compose these words, we are on the verge of surpassing our all-time attendance record for students in one semester, and we have also recently received word from Raleigh on approval for several new programs of study.

Certainly, like all institutions of higher learning, we have challenges, but I prefer to view these as opportunities rather than obstacles. We have respectfully built upon the foundation laid by those who have gone before us, and currently have an All-Star team of faculty and staff to successfully lead us into the future. Along with a wonderful group of Trustees and superb partnerships with local and state entities, the future is certainly bright for Tri-County Community College!

As you browse through the programs and classes in this catalog, I hope you see a number of opportunities available for you here at TCCC, and then, I hope you do not delay in acting upon them as you begin or continue your educational journey.

Best Wishes,

Dr. Donna Tipton-Rogers, President

About TCCC

What is Tri-County Community College?

Tri-County Community College is an accredited, comprehensive, public-supported, two-year, post-secondary institution which operates in accordance with North Carolina Law and the administrative policies of the North Carolina Community College System. Located in the westernmost tip of North Carolina, the College serves commuter students in a remote, rural area consisting of Cherokee, Clay, and Graham counties by providing college transfer, vocational, technical, and adult education programs.

Mission Statement

The mission of Tri-County Community College is to engage students in learning, help students succeed, and enrich the communities we serve. This mission is accomplished through:

A. Innovative and effective teaching.
B. Supportive and efficient learning environments.
C. Strong local and regional partnerships.

Approved by Board of Trustees – June 8, 2011

History of the College

The roots of Tri-County Community College date back to mid-1964, when political and educational leaders of Cherokee County met with representatives of Asheville-Buncombe Technical Institute. That same year, the North Carolina State Board of Education approved the Tri-County Industrial Education Center to operate as a part of the State Department of Community Colleges.

In July 1965, the Cherokee County Board of Education negotiated a lease agreement with the State of North Carolina for the Center to occupy the abandoned Cherokee County Prison Camp. Newly constructed buildings soon joined the original prison facilities. Most of Tri-County’s present buildings on the Murphy campus were built in the ‘60s and ‘70s.

Holland McSwain, Tri-County’s first president, found support from the Appalachian Regional Commission to construct a new classroom facility and to assist in the purchase of the existing property in Cherokee County. In the 1970s, the Appalachian Regional Commission provided grants to renovate and construct three buildings on the Murphy campus of the College, renamed Tri-County Community College.

Board of Trustees

- Jan Lukens – Term Expires 2016 (Murphy, NC)

Current as of publication date. By the act of the North Carolina State Legislature, the President of Tri-County Community College’s student government association is automatically a non-voting member of the Board of Trustees.
The state legislature appropriated the money for the construction of a new multi-purpose building in 1984. The structure, completed in 1989 and named the Enloe Building, joined the three other main facilities - the McSwain, West, and Crisp buildings.

As Tri-County Community College and the surrounding area continued to grow, the need for an off-campus site to serve the people of Graham County became obvious. One of the major goals of Tri-County Community College is to offer convenient, affordable access to educational services for Graham County residents. The construction of the Graham County Center made this goal a reality.

As an extension campus of Tri-County Community College, the Graham County Center offers a variety of curriculum and continuing education courses to meet the educational needs of the county's residents. Curriculum courses in computer information, college transfer, business administration, office systems technology, accounting, criminal justice, and welding are offered at the Center, supported by modern classrooms and student services. Students at the Center have access to computer labs, e-mail accounts, the Internet, basic skills lab, and a full array of student developmental services. Counseling, financial aid, placement exams, admissions registration, records, and other services provided at the Graham County Center are equal in quality and availability to those found on the Main Campus.

Also in 1998, a new multi-purpose building was dedicated on the Main Campus. The Harper Building is home to college administration offices, student services, community enrichment and, it also houses the bookstore.

Thanks to a cooperative agreement from the Cherokee County Commissioners and Board of Education, the College opened the Andrews Office in 2000. In 2003, TCCC opened its Fire and Rescue Training Center. A permanent site for the TCCC TeleCenter/Small Business Center was dedicated in 2004 with the opening of the Patterson Building. The College renovated two buildings on Main Campus in order to expand classroom and laboratory space to better serve its three counties.

In 2005, Cherokee County purchased a 25,000 square foot building in Marble to be used as the Cherokee County Center for Applied Technology. Phase One of the building renovation was completed in 2008. The Center is the result of a collaboration between Tri-County Community College, Cherokee County, and several industry partners to develop a facility to be used for classes and short-run manufacturing, plus provide space for manufacturers to develop prototypes for contracted items. The Center provides facilities for community workforce development and also houses the Small Business Center, the Machinist Training Program, and an associate degree program in Computer Integrated Machining. The NC Rural Center and the Economic Development Administration provided grant funds for the renovation of the building.

The Tri-County Early College High School (TCECHS) began classes in 2006 on the main campus in Murphy. Its goal is to provide an opportunity for high school students to earn both a high school diploma and an associate's degree from the College.

In 2010, Tri-County Community College opened the Emergency Services Training Center classroom which is located on the main campus and adjacent to the four-story Fire and Rescue Center burn facility. The College also was approved and graduated its first-ever Basic Law Enforcement Training class during 2010. The expansion of the TCCC Health and Public Safety program and associated facilities is consistent with the ongoing mission to help student succeed and enrich our communities.

Presidents of Tri-County Community College

- Holland McSwain: 1964 to 1972
- Vincent Crisp: 1972 to 1992
- Dr. Harry Jarrett: 1992 to 1995
- Dr. Norman Oglesby: 1996 to 2006
- Dr. Donna Tipton-Rogers: 2007 - Present
Academic programs currently being offered at Tri-County Community College (TCCC) are designed as either Technical or College Transfer. Programs classified as Technical confer an Associate in Applied Science degree. These programs are normally four or five semesters in length. Programs classified as College Transfer confer an Associate in Arts or Associate in Science degree. This program is normally four semesters in length and is designed for individuals who plan to transfer to a senior institution for completion of a four-year degree.

Tri-County Community College, in the name of the North Carolina Community College System, can award the following:

- Certificate
- Diploma
- Associate in Applied Science (A.A.S.)
- Associate in Arts (A.A.)
- Associate in Science (A.S.)
- Associate in General Education (A.G.E.)

The Tri-County Early College High School (TCECHS) is an autonomous high school located on the main college campus. The TCECHS provides students who enroll in the ninth grade the opportunity to earn both their high school diploma and an associate degree (or two years of college credit) within four years. The TCECHS provides a safe, caring educational environment where students become active learners, practical problem-solvers, and productive members of the workforce. It is a unique high school environment accepting students of diverse ability levels through an application process conducted each spring.

For more information, contact Alissa Cheek at 828-835-4318 or Dr. Jason Chambers at 828-835-4297.

Tri-County Community College offers the opportunity for lifelong learning to all adults, regardless of their educational background.

Career and Community Education courses are specifically designed classes of short duration covering a wide variety of subjects. While some Career and Community Education students may earn CEUs (Continuing Education Units) upon completion of certain subjects, none of the Career and Community Education courses lead to a college degree or diploma.

Basic skills courses are available at no charge to those who did not complete high school and wish to improve their education in reading, writing, mathematics, or basic sciences.

The Tri-County Community College Foundation is a nonprofit organization governed by a Board of Directors representing the College's service area. The mission of the Foundation is to support the College by providing necessary resources and acting as a catalyst between the College and the community. Donations to the TCCC Foundation may be tax deductible.

The TCCC Foundation supports these projects and events:

- Children's Theatre for area fourth, fifth, and sixth graders
- Scholarships
- College facilities projects including faculty offices, classrooms, and equipment
- Workforce development projects
- Technology projects
- Endowed funds
- Memorial gifts
- Planned giving

General Education Philosophy Statement

A guiding philosophy of Tri-County Community College is the integrated nature of program development. Rather than focusing narrowly on a particular skill in isolation, the degree programs at the College stress holistic learning: the application of particular skills in a wide variety of situations and the ability to translate those skills in new contexts, whether those new contexts are other courses at the College, various workplaces in a rapidly changing economic environment, or other institutions of higher learning to which our students transfer. Today, given the dynamic nature of most disciplines, fields of employment, and society in general, the foundational skills that allow students to translate their abilities and skills into other contexts have become survival skills. Tri-County Community College’s mission is to facilitate student success, and we believe that these skills that are the foundation of all our programs are the most important means to accomplish that mission. The integration of Global Learning Outcomes of reading, writing, oral communication, mathematics, critical thinking, and basic computer skills is the pathway that all programs at Tri-County Community College provide for our students to achieve success. Similarly, the systematic assessment of these skills, across the curriculum, provides a vital indication of our success in preparing students for the future.

Upon successful completion of a TCCC degree program, a student will be able to:

Written Communication
- Focus and develop topics.
- Determine the appropriate format and diction for the intended audience.
- Present information in a clearly organized fashion.
- Present information in a grammatically effective manner.
- Construct rhetorically effective texts in a wide range of writing situations.
- Utilize a standard style sheet (MLA, APA) to properly document sources.

Oral Communication
- Focus and develop topics.
- Determine the appropriate format and diction for the intended audience.
- Present information in a clearly organized fashion.
- Deliver information in a manner that is physically and verbally effective.
- Construct rhetorically effective communication (e.g., speeches, presentations, interviews, small group discussions) in a wide range of situations.
- Utilize appropriate human relations skills in a wide range of professional situations.

Listening and Reading
- Put into practice literal comprehension skills (familiarity and memory).
- Put into practice inferential comprehension skills (comprehension and analysis).
- Put into practice critical comprehension skills (application and evaluation).

Critical Thinking
- Distinguish facts from generalizations and assumptions.
- Investigate information and demonstrate an understanding of that information.
- Analyze information by recognizing induction, deduction, fallacies, and bias. Then, apply that information to new contexts and critically evaluate that information.
- Recognize performance errors, develop solutions, and effectively apply those solutions.

Computer Competency
- Create a file in an application, save it to a removable storage device, and reopen it.
- Do simple file management, create a folder, copy a file, delete a file, and rename a file.
- Be able to send attachments with e-mail.
- Use a web browser for research purposes.

Mathematical Skills
- Use calculator and computer technology appropriately in mathematics problem solving.
- Write coherent and effective reports on problem solution and technique.
- Compute correctly using real numbers and scientific notation.
- Effectively use fundamental geometric, statistical, measurement, and critical thinking skills in problem solving.
- Manipulate and solve linear formulas and equations.
- Graph collected data and apply appropriate linear models.
- Use consumer mathematics in situations such as those involving: simple and compound interest, loan payments, annuities, and amortization schedules.

The North Carolina Community College System has utilized numerous processes over the years to ensure public accountability for its financial expenditures. These processes have included fiscal audits, program audits, institutional effectiveness plans, and program review. The State Board of Community Colleges reviews colleges annually on accountability measures and performance standards. Each college is evaluated based on seven performance measures. The information below indicates how TCCC rated on each measure in the most recent report.
