HRD HAS MOVED!

Are you currently seeking employment and need to develop or update your resume?

Is the application process confusing and you could use some assistance?

Are there so many forms overwhelming you and help would be appreciated?

If you answered yes to one or all of these questions, please call or visit Tri-County Community College's Human Resource Development office now located in the Crisp Building for assistance. We have qualified and experienced staff to assist you with the application process, skills training, career assessments, and more.

There are many open positions in our communities needing to be filled and the right resume/cover letter could get you the interview!

For more information, please call Dotie Stafford-Ortega at (828) 835-4208 or dstafford@tricountycc.edu.
