RELEASE OF ACADEMIC AND ENROLLMENT INFORMATION

Tri-County Community College is committed to continuous improvement; therefore, the College uses information about students to enhance programs. I understand that information about me, including my social security number, may be used for record keeping and research data analysis. The College will use this information for program improvement of the institution, but it will not be used to personally identify me.

Release of Student Records: Any student who does not wish for "Directory Information" to be released must notify Student Services in writing within 10 days after registration. Please refer to the current Tri-County Community College General Catalog & Student Handbook for any additional information.

Release of Grades to High Schools: As a high school student enrolled in a college class, I understand and agree that my end of semester grades will be released to the appropriate personnel at my high school.

Permission to Discuss Academic Information in the Presence of a Third-Party

Information pertaining to your academic record is protected by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA). College personnel are not allowed to discuss information regarding your grades, attendance, or any other academic matter with another person, or in the presence of another person, without your express permission. Only college employees performing within the commission of their assigned duties have the right to access or discuss your records, and information can only be released in accordance with FERPA regulations.

- YES, I give permission to Tri-County Community College to discuss any of my academic information with authorized personnel at my high school.

- NO, I do not give permission to Tri-County Community College to discuss any of my academic information with authorized personnel at my high school.

To participate in this program, you must be ready for the responsibilities involved in taking college-level classes and must follow all rules, guidelines, and regulations as outlined in the TCCC General Catalog and Student Handbook. Your high school will recommend you for this program based on your academic performance and your demonstrated maturity level.

I have read the attached information, and I agree to abide by the TCCC policies and procedures.
